

Navajo Nation Human Rights Commission 2018 Fiscal Year – Second Quarter Data 28 Total Active Cases

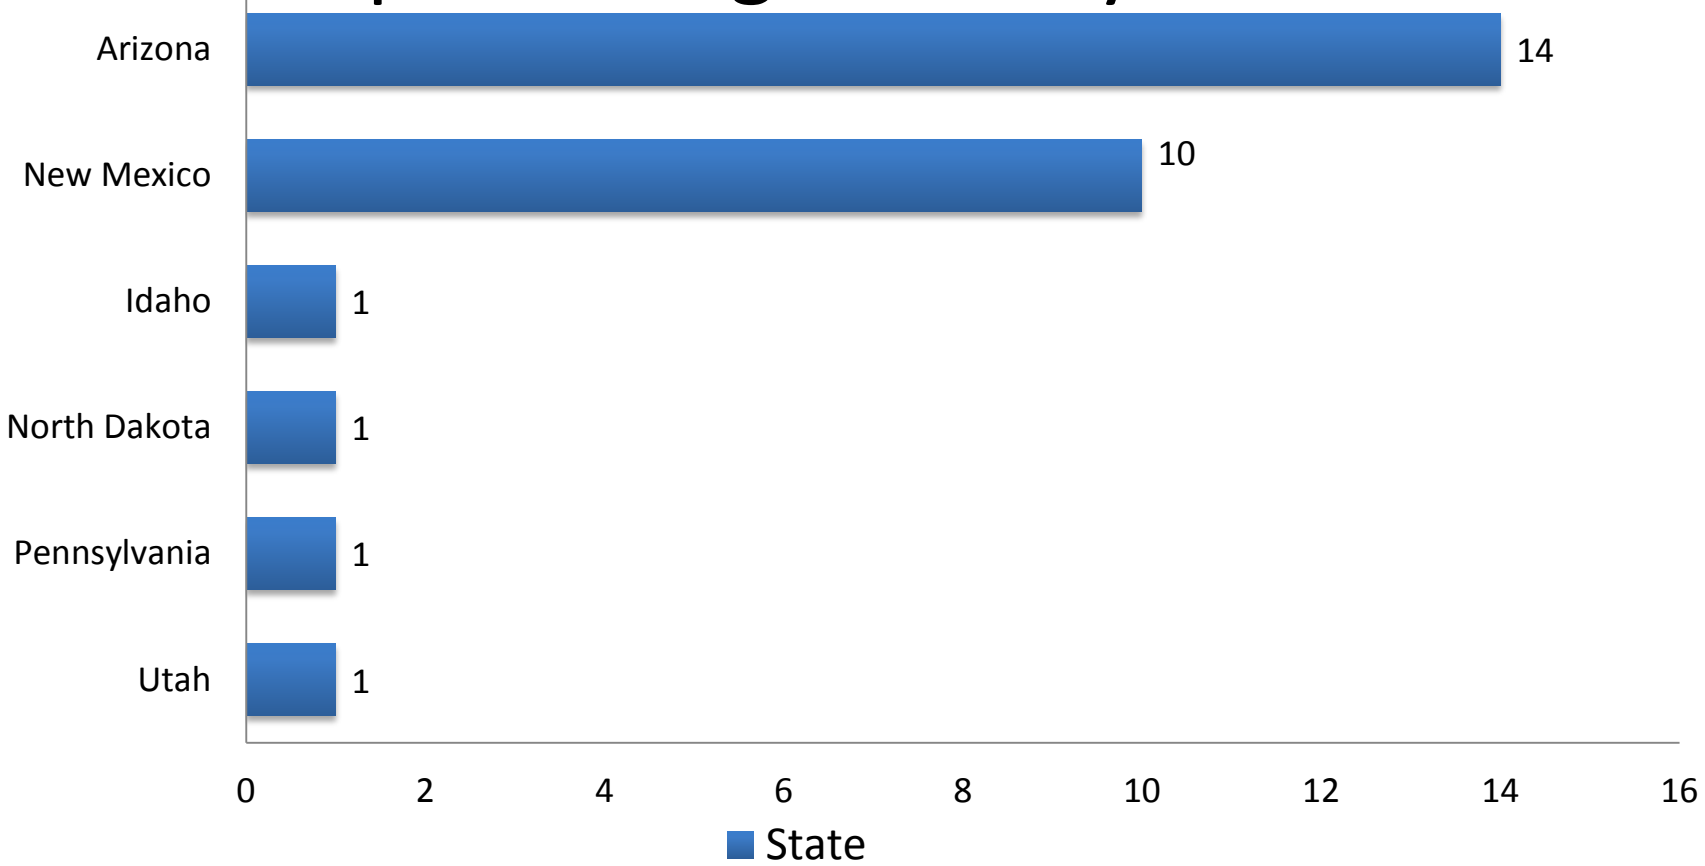

Gender

Female – 16 Male – 12

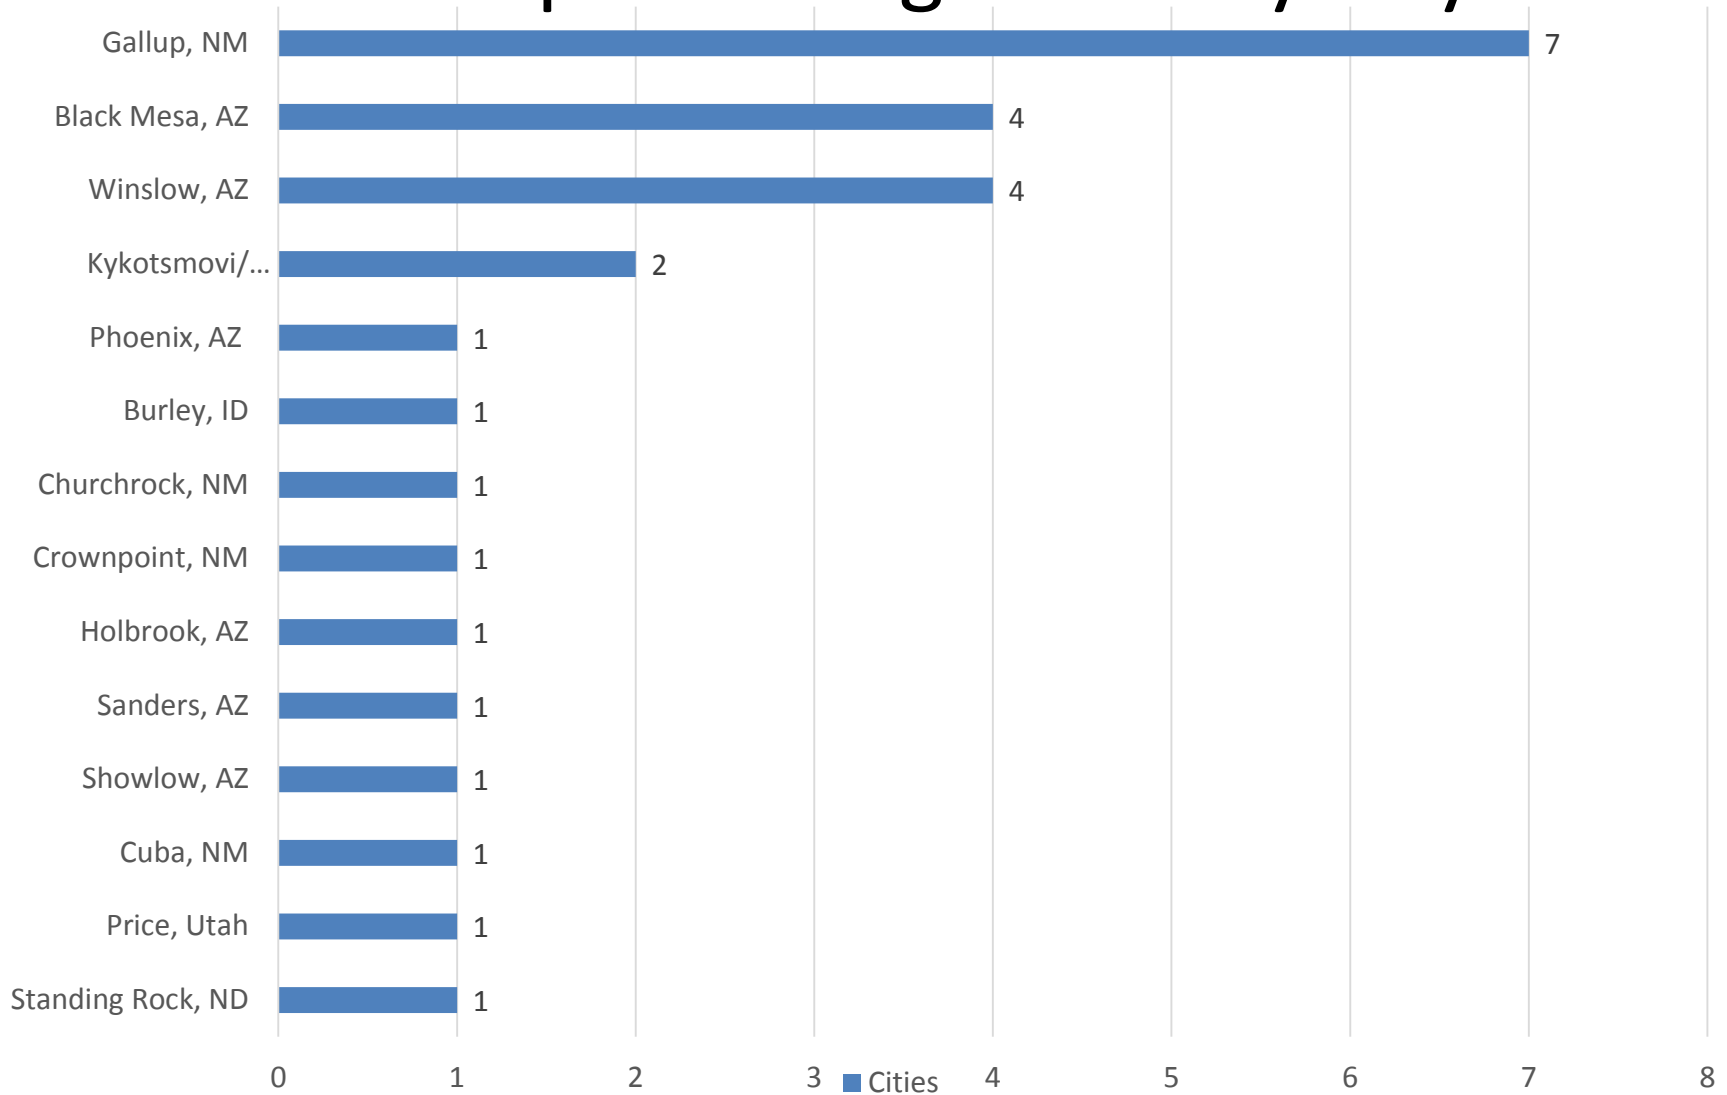

This chart and the following charts show the data obtained from the written complaints filed with the Office of the Navajo Nation Human Rights (“Office”) between January 1, 2018 through March 31, 2018. As indicated, the Office had 28 cases listed as “active” in which written complaints were either being investigated and/or monitored. Of the 28 (100%) cases, 16 (55%) of the cases were brought forth by Navajo women compared to 12 (43%) by Navajo men.

Complaint Originated By State

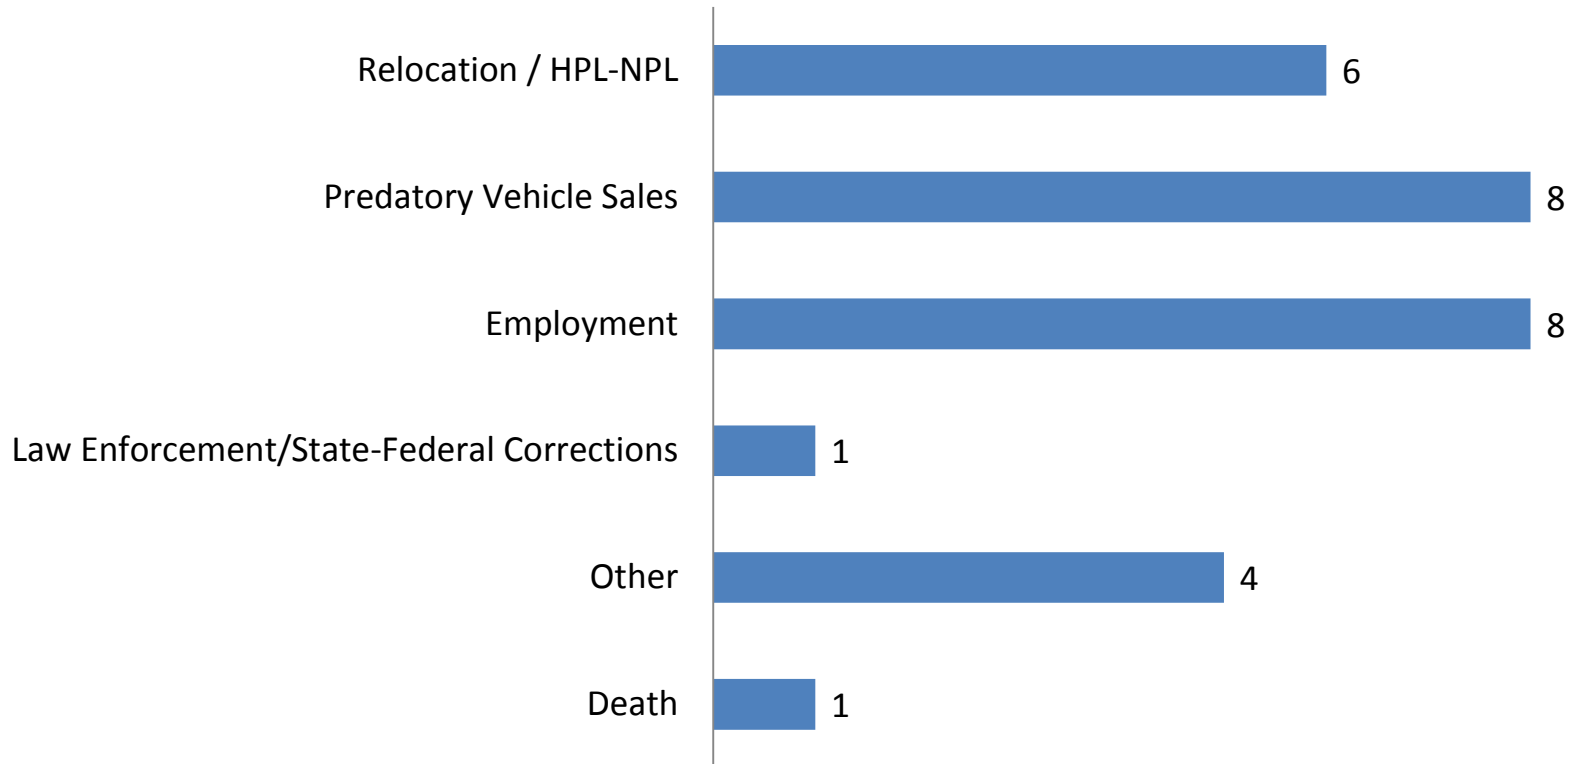

This chart shows the state from where each case came from. For example, of the 28 active cases, 14 cases originated in the State of Arizona; 10 active cases came from the State of New Mexico; and 1 case each was filed from Idaho, North Dakota, Pennsylvania and Utah.

Complaint Originated by City

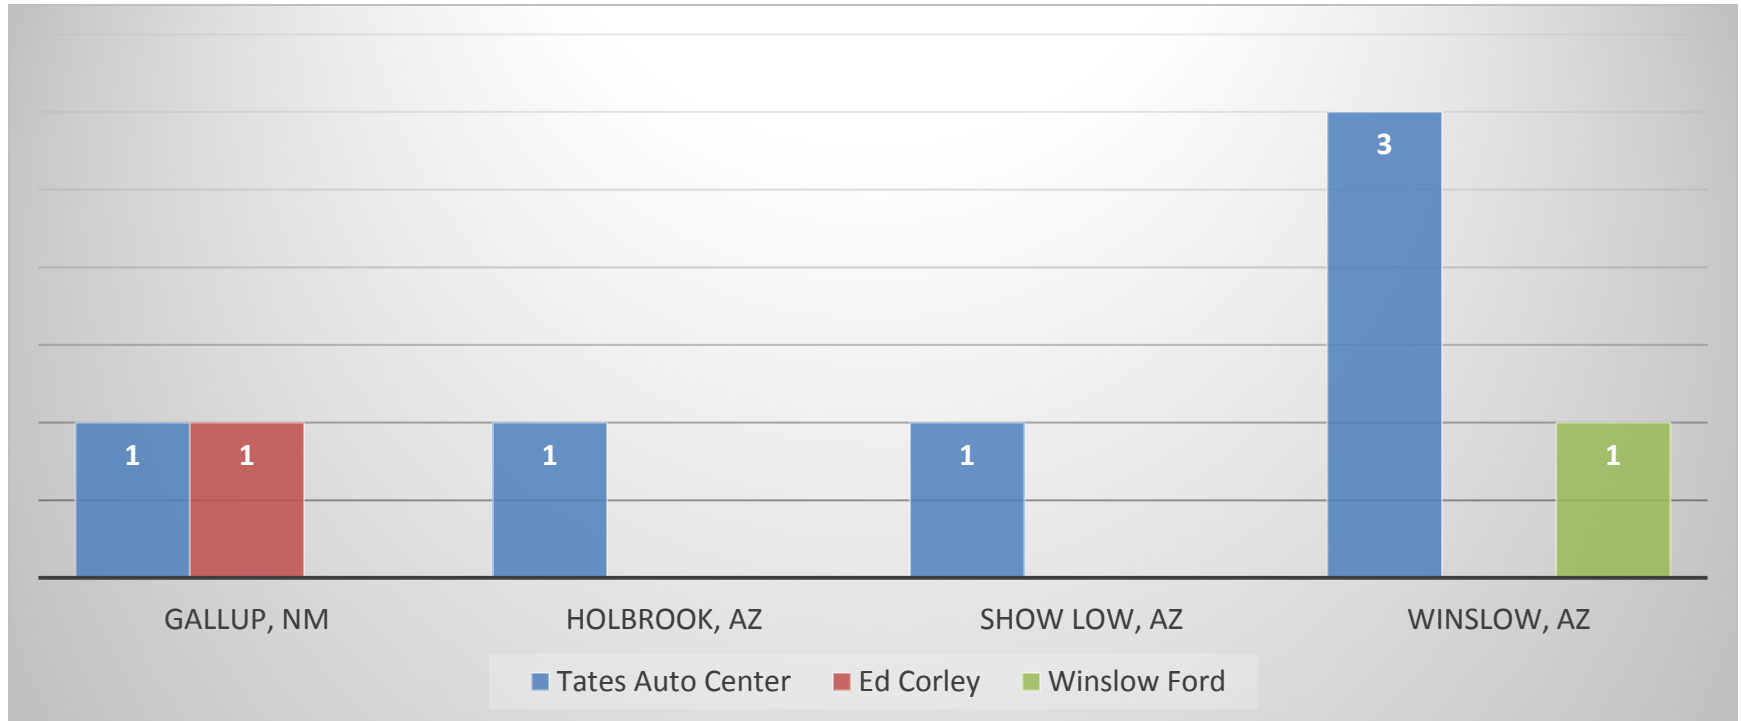

This next chart shows the breakdown of the complaints by city and state. For example, one complaint apiece originated in Phoenix, AZ; Burley, ID; Churchrock, NM; Crownpoint, NM; Holbrook, AZ; Sanders, AZ; Showlow, AZ; Cuba, NM; Price, Utah; Standing Rock, ND; and Hurismburg, PA. Two complaints were initiated in Kykotsmovi, AZ. Four complaints each arised in Black Mesa, AZ and Winslow, AZ. Lastly, seven complaints originated in Gallup, NM.

Complaint by Category

The following chart shows the issues identified in the written complaints which are categorized accordingly. For example, of the 29 complaints, 8 complaints each concerned with Predatory Vehicle Sales and Employment. Six complaints involved Hopi Partitioned Land – Relocation. Four complaints were categorized as “Other” which included various issues such as Property, Loan Company, Standing Rock Protest and an Estranged In-law Relationship with a Navajo Family. Finally, one complaint each identified Law Enforcement/State Corrections and Death as problematic.

Predatory Auto Sale by Dealership & Location

This last chart shows the name and location of the automobile dealers where predatory sales is a concern. For example, one complaint each identified Winslow Ford in Winslow, AZ and Tate's Auto Center in Gallup, NM, Holbrook, AZ, and Show Low, AZ as a concern. And, three complaints list Tate's Auto Center in Winslow, AZ as an alarm.