NNHRC to visit Kaibeto and Round Rock communities on March 20th

For those who want to file a complaint about predatory auto sales

SAINT MICHAELS, Navajo Nation—The Navajo Nation Human Rights Commission will be in Kaibeto and Round Rock this week to visit with Navajo citizens who want to file a complaint about predatory auto sales like spot delivery abuse or have specific complaints about Tate's Auto. Complaints should help bring awareness to the Commission about Navajo consumers' buying experience.

On Wednesday, March 20, 2013, NNHRC will be available at the Kaibeto Chapter House at 9 a.m., and for Round Rock, NNHRC will be available at 1 p.m. at the Round Rock Chapter House.

NNHRC will have complaint forms available on-site for each location.

For more information, call the Navajo Nation Human Rights Commission office at (928) 871-7436.
