Arizona Independent Redistricting Commission hosts Public meeting in Window Rock, Navajo Nation (ARIZ)

St. Michaels, Navajo Nation (ARIZ) – The Navajo Nation Human Rights Commission (“Commission”) is notifying the public on an important public meeting hosted by Arizona Independent Redistricting Commission (“IRC”). The upcoming in-person meeting is the first round of public meetings to gain input from Arizona residents in redrawing Arizona’s congressional and legislative districts boundaries.

In-Person location:

What: Arizona Independent Redistricting Commission Public Meeting

When: July 30, 2021

Time: 3:00 P.M. MDT

Location: Navajo Nation Museum Auditorium

Arizona 264 and Loop Road

Window Rock, AZ 86515

It is important that Navajo citizens voice their opinion on how the IRC will be developing the new districts. The IRC will incorporate input from the public in the development of the future districts. If you are unable to attend the in-person meeting visit <https://irc.az.gov/survey> website to complete the community of interest survey. Currently the Commission working on Navajo Nation redistricting plans for Arizona, New Mexico and Utah. For more information, contact the Commission at 928-871-7436.
